AMERICUS CLUB

Founded over 100 years ago, The Americus Republican Club served as one of Pittsburgh's foremost social institutions. From Art Rooney's first boxing match to Teddy Roosevelt inaugural celebrations, it has long been a place to forge relationships and make history.

Today, we introduce Americus Club, a 12,000 square foot hospitality focused office and social space in its original home at the elegantly restored Pitt Building. Serviced by Beauty Shoppe, Americus Club's thoughtfully designed space and social programming inspire Pittsburgh's next generation of creators, innovators, and thought leaders.
